JAP LITIGANT WINS SUIT AGAINST HIS TRICKY PARTNER

Iwaya Disposed of White Star Saloon Fraudulently and Sheriff will See that Matsukawa Gets Property Back.

The sale of the White Star saloon on the Indian school road by S. Iwaya to T. Tomonaga was fraudulently charged by F. Matsukawa, and the latter is half-owner of the property, was the verdict of Judge Hascall in the district court in the suit brought by Matsukawa against the other two Japs named.

Matsukawa and Iwaya recently formed partnership and bought the White Star saloon. Iwaya schemed to force his partner out and the sale of the place to Tomonaga is said to have been the result of his scheming. Matsukawa had Iwaya arrested, charged with embezzlement of $100, and Iwaya was held for the grand jury by Justice McMillan. He was freed under a temporary writ in habeas corpus proceedings but at the hearing next day Judge Reynolds refused further interference with the course of the prosecution. Iwaya then obtained bail and Matsukawa started the suit to establish his rights.

The verdict finds that Matsukawa is one-half owner of the stock, fixtures and equipment of the saloon of the firm of Matsukawa & Iwaya, and the bill of sale is set aside. Iwaya is ordered to make an accounting of the business, and the sheriff is directed to put Matsukawa in peaceful possession of his property.

Paying the Shoe Bill

The average family man buys shoes for about five people—and with shoe prices as they are and the way some shoes wear out, he certainly finds the shoe question of no small consideration.

Then, there is no prospect of things getting any better so long as he buys the average run of shoes.

HERE IS RELIEF

Our splendid shoes look so much better and last so much longer that they will reduce your shoe bills materially.
